CUTTING INSTRUCTIONS

All operations included in file are cuts.

Recommended order:
Glowforge UI should import in correct order.
Cut profiles starting with innermost and working outward.

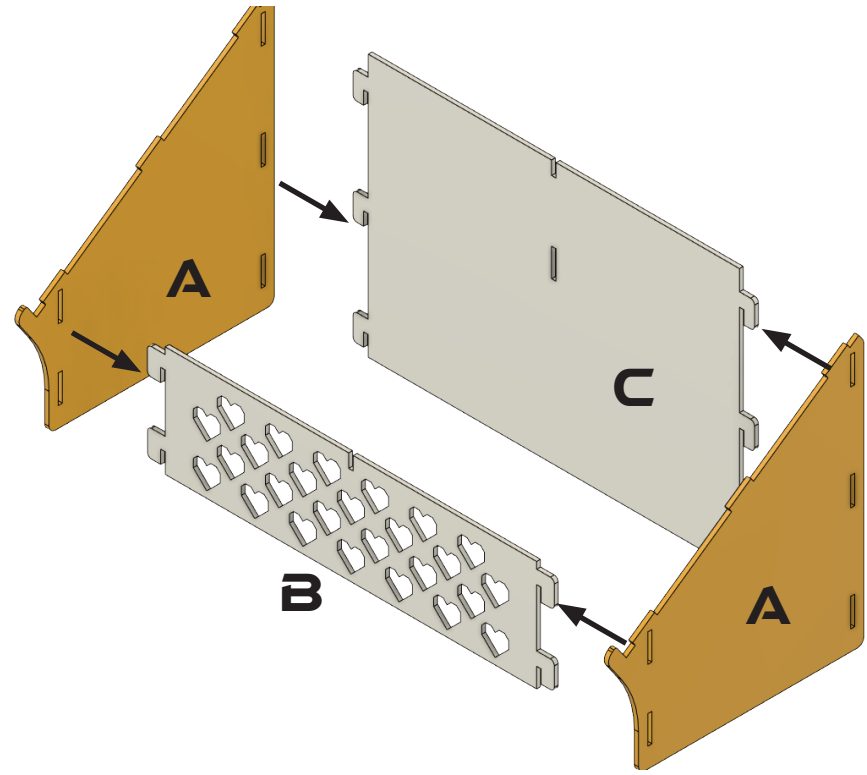

CUSTOMIZATION

I removed the starstream design from Sides A.
It is not my design and I don't feel comfortable distributing my adaptation.

Sides A have plenty of space for engraving or cutting another design

ASSEMBLY INSTRUCTIONS

- Start with Front B and Back C.
- Place Slots of Sides A onto tabs of Front B and Back C.

ASSEMBLY INSTRUCTIONS

Push Front B down into position

Insert Center Support D into slot of Back C.

Note: Center Support D will not slide past Front B if Back C has been pushed down. You may need to slide it back up first.

Push Center Support D down to meet Back C.
Push Back C down into Sides A.

Center Support D will also slide down into Front B.

This should lock Center Support D in place

ASSEMBLY INSTRUCTIONS

Put slots of Top / Platform E onto tabs of Sides A and Center Support D.

Top / Platform E is symmetrical in all directions. If it fits, it's correct.

STRUCTURE EXPLAINED

Top / Platform E is a key piece. It holds Sides A straight, holds Center Support D down, Which keeps Front B and Back C aligned.

Back Story

My wife loves to quilt. One of her dreams for this house was having a space to quilt. This space needs to double as her home office for work from home. Getting a laptop up to eye level really helps with neck strain, so that's what inspired this design.
